

Expense Reimbursement Policy

Version 1.8 - Effective 1 February 2026

1. Submission Deadlines

Expense claims must be submitted within 30 days of the transaction date.

Claims submitted between 31 and 60 days require a written explanation from the line manager and may be rejected.

Claims older than 60 days are not reimbursed under any circumstances.

2. Receipts

Itemized receipts are required for any single expense over 25 USD. Claims over 25 USD without an itemized receipt are rejected.

A card slip or bank statement is not an acceptable substitute for an itemized receipt.

Receipts must show the supplier, the date, the individual line items and the total amount paid.

3. Travel Limits

Hotel accommodation is capped at 200 USD per night for domestic travel and 300 USD per night for international travel.

Meals during business travel are reimbursed up to 75 USD per day, regardless of the number of meals taken.

Standard economy class is the default for all flights. Premium economy requires director approval, and business class is not reimbursable for flights under 8 hours.

4. Approval and Payment

Claims under 500 USD are approved by your line manager.

Claims of 500 USD or more require approval from your line manager and the finance team.

Approved claims are paid in the payroll run on the 15th of each month. A claim approved after the 10th is paid in the following run.

Reimbursement is made in the currency of the transaction, or in USD for expenses paid in another currency.

5. Non-Reimbursable Expenses

Alcohol, minibar charges, in-flight entertainment and personal entertainment are not reimbursable.

Fines, penalties and traffic violations are not reimbursable.

Commuting between home and the office is not reimbursable. A home office allowance of 60 USD per month is paid separately.
