

HR Leave and Time Off Policy

Version 2.1 - Effective 1 March 2026

1. Annual Leave

Full-time employees accrue 25 days of paid annual leave per year, accruing monthly at 2.08 days for each completed month of service.

Part-time employees accrue pro rata based on contracted hours.

Unused annual leave does not roll over automatically. Up to 5 unused days may be carried into the following year and must be used before 31 March or the balance is forfeited.

2. Sick Leave

Employees receive 10 days of paid sick leave per calendar year.

A medical certificate is required for any absence of 3 or more consecutive working days, and must be submitted within 7 days of returning to work.

Sick leave is separate from annual leave and does not reduce the annual leave balance.

3. Parental Leave

Primary caregivers receive 18 weeks of parental leave at full pay, which may be taken in up to 3 separate blocks within the first 12 months.

Secondary caregivers receive 6 weeks of parental leave at full pay and must take it within 12 months of the birth or placement.

Notify your line manager and People Operations at least 8 weeks before the intended start date where possible.

4. Requesting Leave and Notice Periods

Annual leave requests of 5 or more consecutive working days require 3 weeks notice.

Requests of 1 to 4 consecutive working days require 1 week notice.

Leave is approved by your line manager and must be entered into the HR system before the leave begins.

Leave taken during a customer critical period requires 6 weeks notice and approval from the department head.

5. Public Holidays

Public holidays follow the country of employment. Employees in the United Kingdom receive 8 bank holidays per year.

Where a public holiday falls on a day you would not normally work, you may substitute it for another day, subject to line manager approval.
